Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)

(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

29. Each reference to a corporation, partnership, joint venture, unincorporated association, government agency, or other fictitious Person shall be deemed to include each and all of its subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, and successors, and for each such entity, its officers, directors, shareholders, employees, partners, limited partners, representatives, agents, accountants, attorneys, trustees, and any other Person who acted on its behalf.

30. Each reference to a natural Person shall be deemed to include that Person’s agents, attorneys, and any other Person who acted on that Person’s behalf.

31. In construing the requests, the singular includes the plural and vice versa, except as the context may otherwise require; any request propounded in the present tense shall also be read as if propounded in the past tense and vice versa; and any reference to any gender includes the other gender.

32. The words “and” and “or” shall be construed as either conjunctive or disjunctive in such manner as will broaden as widely as possible the scope of the request.

33. The words “all,” “any,” and “each” shall each be construed broadly, meaning “any and all.”

34. The word “concerning” means relating to, referring to, describing, evidencing, or constituting.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. This is an exhibit to the Subpoena issued pursuant to the authority of the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico requiring You to produce the Documents that are described below.

2. You are required to answer these HTA-Related Document Requests drawing upon all materials in Your possession, custody, or control, as well as any materials that are not in Your custody but are owned in whole or in part by You, and any materials that, pursuant to any understanding, express or implied, You may use, inspect, examine, or copy. You must provide all information in response to an HTA-Related Document Request which is known to You, Your agents, consultants employees, accountants, attorneys, or experts, or which appears in Your records.

3. The following rules of construction shall apply to these HTA-Related Document Requests.

- a. The terms “all” and “any,” whenever used separately, shall be construed as “any and all” to encompass the greatest amount of responsive material.
- b. The connectives “and” and “or” shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of any HTA-Related Document Request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope.
- c. The term “including” shall always be construed to mean “including, but not limited to,” or “including, without limitation” to encompass more than the specifically identified materials.
- d. The present tense shall also include the past tense and vice versa.

e. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa.

4. Documents shall be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall be organized and labeled to correspond to the categories in these HTA-Related Document Requests.

5. You are required to produce all non-identical copies and drafts of each document. The originals of all documents produced in copy form shall be made available for inspection upon request.

6. Documents attached to each other in their original form should not be separated.

7. If no information or documents responsive to a numbered paragraph are in Your possession, You are to indicate this in a written response.

8. The fact that a document has or will be produced by another plaintiff, third party, or other party to these or related proceedings does not relieve You of the obligation to produce Your copy of the same document.

9. If any document is withheld in whole or in part under claim of any privilege or work product or other immunity, then consistent with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5), as applied to this proceeding by Bankruptcy Rule 7026, and PROMESA § 310, 48 U.S.C. § 2170, You are to provide a list of such documents identifying each such document for which any such privilege, work product, or other immunity is claimed, together with the following information:

- a. the nature of the claim of privilege or immunity, including the statute, rule, or decision giving rise to the claim of privilege or immunity;
- b. all facts relied upon in support of the claim of privilege or immunity;
- c. all Persons or entities on whose behalf the privilege or immunity is claimed;
- d. the type of document (e.g., letter, memorandum, note, telegram, e-mail, chart, report, recording, etc.);

- e. the subject matter (without revealing the information as to which privilege is claimed);
- f. its date, author(s), sender(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s); and
- g. the paragraph(s) of these HTA-Related Document Requests to which production of the document is responsive.

You are further directed to describe the factual and legal basis for each claim of privilege or immunity in sufficient detail so as to permit the court to adjudicate the validity of the claim of privilege or immunity, and to produce all documents or portions thereof not subject to Your objection.

10. If any document requested was, but is no longer, in Your possession, custody, or control, identify the document and state what disposition was made of it and the date or dates upon which such disposition was made, and additionally, produce all documents relating to the disposition of such document.

11. If You object to any HTA-Related Document Request (or portion thereof), state the reason for the objection in detail and respond to that HTA-Related Document Request as narrowed by Your objection.

12. Unless otherwise specified in a specific request, electronically stored information (“ESI”) as that term is used in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 should be produced as follows:

- a. TIFFs. Black and white images shall be delivered as single page Group IV TIFF image files. Color images must be produced in .jpeg format. Image file names should not contain spaces or special characters and must have a unique file name, i.e., Beginning Bates Number. Images must be endorsed with sequential Bates numbers in the lower right corner of each image.
- b. Unique IDs. Each image should have a unique file name and should be named with the Bates number assigned to it.

- c. Text Files. Extracted full text in the format of document level text files shall be provided in a separate folder, one text file per document. Each text file should match the respective TIFF filename (Beginning Bates Number). Text from redacted pages will be produced in OCR format rather than extracted text.
- d. Parent-Child Relationships. Parent-child relationships (the association between an attachment and its parent record) should be preserved.
- e. Database Load Files/Cross-Reference Files. Records should be provided in a format compatible with the following industry standards.
 - The image cross-reference file to link the images to the database should be a comma-delimited file with a line in the cross-reference file for every image in the database.
 - The data file (.dat) should contain all the fielded information that will be loaded into the database.
 - The first line of the .dat file must be a header row identifying the field names.
 - The .date file must use the following Concordance default delimiters:

Comma	¶	ASCII	character	(020)
Quote	h	ASCII	character	(254).
 - Date Fields should be provided in the format mm/dd/yyyy.
 - Date and time fields must be two separate fields.
 - If the production includes imaged emails and attachments, the attachment fields must be included to preserve the parent/child relationship between an email and its attachments.
 - An OCRPATH field must be included to provide the file path name of the extracted text file(s).
 - Each text file must be named after the Beginning Bates Number.
 - For production with native files, a NATIVELINK field must be included in the .dat file to provide the file path and name of the native file being produced.
 - Beginning Bates Number and Ending Bates Number should be two separate fields.

- A complete list of metadata fields is included in paragraph 11(f).
- f. Metadata. For all ESI records, provide all of the following metadata fields: Custodian, Beginning Bates Number, Ending Bates Number, Beginning Attachment Number, Ending Attachment Number, Record Type, Master Date, SentOn Date and Time, Received Date and Time, Create Date and Time, Last Modified Date and Time, Parent Folder, Author, To, From, CC, BCC, Subject/Title, Original Source, Native Path, File Extension, File Name, File Size, Full Text, and page count.
- g. Spreadsheets. For spreadsheets that were originally created using common, off-the-shelf software (e.g., Microsoft Excel), produce the spreadsheets in native format and, in addition, in TIFF format. Native file documents must be named per the Beginning Bates Number. The full path of the native file must be provided in the .dat file.
2. Hard copy documents shall be produced as follows:
- a. TIFFs. Black and white images shall be delivered as single page Group IV TIFF image files. Color images must be produced in .jpeg format. Image file names should not contain spaces or special characters and must have a unique file name, i.e., Beginning Bates Number. Images must be endorsed with sequential Bates numbers in the lower right corner of each image.
- b. Unique IDs. Each image should have a unique file name and should be named with the Bates number assigned to it.
- c. OCR. High-quality document level OCR text files should be provided in a separate folder, one text file per document. Each text file should match the respective TIFF filename (Beginning Bates Number). For redacted documents, provide the re-OCR'd version.
- d. Database Load Files/Cross-Reference Files. Records should be provided in a format compatible with the following industry standards.
- The image cross-reference file to link the images to the database should be a comma-delimited file with a line in the cross-reference file for every image in the database.
 - The data file (.dat) should contain all the fielded information that will be loaded into the database.
 - The first line of the .dat file must be a header row identifying the field names.

- The .date file must use the following Concordance default delimiters:
Comma ¶ ASCII character (020)
Quote þ ASCII character (254).
 - Date Fields should be provided in the format mm/dd/yyyy.
 - Date and time fields must be two separate fields.
 - If the production includes imaged emails and attachments, the attachment fields must be included to preserve the parent/child relationship between an email and its attachments.
 - An OCRPATH field must be included to provide the file path name of the extracted text file(s).
 - Each text file must be named after the Beginning Bates Number.
 - For production with native files, a NATIVELINK field must be included in the .dat file to provide the file path and name of the native file being produced.
 - Beginning Bates Number and Ending Bates Number should be two separate fields.
- e. Unitizing of Records. In scanning hard copy records, distinct records should not be merged into a single record, and single records, should not be split into multiple records (i.e., hard copy records should be logically unitized).
- f. Parent-Child Relationships. Parent-child relationships (the association between an attachment and its parent record) should be preserved.
- g. Objective Coding Fields. The following objective coding fields should be provided: Beginning Bates Number, Ending Bates Number, Beginning Attachment Number, Ending Attachment Number, Source-Custodian, and page count.

13. These HTA-Related Documents Requests are continuing in nature. If any information or document responsive to an HTA-Related Document Request herein is not presently in Your possession, custody, or control but subsequently becomes available, is discovered or is created, or comes into Your possession, custody, or control, You have a continuing obligation pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e), and are hereby requested, to supplement Your responses to these HTA-Related Document Requests within a reasonable period of time after it comes into Your possession, custody, or control.

RELEVANT DATE SECTION

Unless otherwise specified, the relevant time period for these requests is January 1, 2004 to the present.
